Lecturers and Hosts

December 6-14 - Robert Todd. You'll find Robert all over the country and the world playing and teaching bridge. He started playing at a very young age and came to duplicate while working on his graduate degree in mathematics. Once he decided to become a bridge professional, he never looked back.

Robert finished in the top 20 on the Barry Crane list in 2008 and 2009 and posted several top-10 finishes in National Pairs events. He won the inaugural 0-10,000 Knockout Teams at the Dallas NABC in 2014. He is frequently a featured lecturer at Regional and National Tournaments. Alice Travel's bridge cruisers enjoy Robert's spot-on teaching style and his enthusiasm for the game.

December 14-22 - Barbara Seagram. Barbara hails from Barbados, West Indies. Moving to Toronto in 1970, she started working for the Kate Buckman Bridge Studio soon after and, in 1990, she and her husband, Alex Kornel, bought the club.

Under their ownership, it became the largest bridge club in Canada and fourth largest on the continent. In 2006, ACBL named it the top Bridge Club in North America.

Barbara received the Kate Buckman Award, given to the person who has contributed most to others' enjoyment of the game and the Audrey Grant Award for teaching. Barbara is the co-author of 26 published bridge books; the most well-known being "25 Bridge Conventions You Should Know" which won Book of the Year award from the American Bridge Teachers' Association. It is now in its 19th printing and has been translated into French, German, Japanese and Danish.
